

2019
YEARBOOK
SUPPLEMENT

ACADEMICS

Dominic Butler works through a physics project during IPC class.

Hunter Sullivan, Ashlie Gary and Saul Resenis prepare the base to their roller coaster in Physics class.

Toby Marmon works on a project for Mrs. Hill's IPC class.

Alexus Mar-Chavez and Nick Murray prepare the base for their roller coaster in Henderson's physics class.

Michael Dixon and Wyatt Walker talk with a presenter during the health fair.

Jadyn Scott and Lakya Jackson talk with a presenter during the health fair.

Jasmine Jones, Emily Ventura, Shade Steele and Nathan Truesdale pick up some goodies from a presenter at the health fair.

Eric Rodriguez picks up some supplies from a presenter at the Health fair.

Ashley Torres receives a backrub from a certified massage therapist at the health fair. Students 18 or older were able to receive first hand knowledge of the benefits of massage therapy.

HEALTH FAIR

ATHLETIC BANQUET

Clara Coker and Lily Dawson received awards for girls powerlifting.

Christa Niemeyer, Erakah Easley, Clara Coker and Rakasia Buhl pose with their awards for volleyball.

Jared Hodges, Reese Sims, Brady Hering and John Reyna pose with their awards from football.

Nixon Frias and Ty Stock pose with the boys cross country awards. Stock finished 19th in the state at the state meet.

Reese Sims receives an award for baseball.

The Lady Cougar basketball team poses with Coach Carter and their banner to commemorate his 400th career win from during the season.

Emma Hering presents Delaney Wilde an award for her participation in district FFA activities.

Samuel Taggart presents Clyde Coker with an award for his participation in FFA activities.

FFA AWARDS BANQUET

Kenneth Benson presents Tanner Martin with an award of appreciation.

Former AG teacher Mike Sammon presents an award to Isidro Hernandez.

Ag teacher Kenneth Benson presents Rowdy Baker with an award at the banquet.

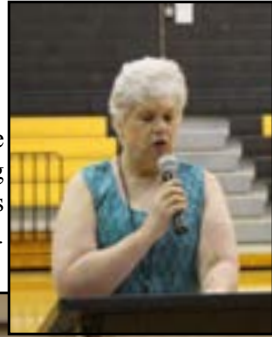

Rowdy Baker present Emily Hering with an appreciation award at the banquet.

Rowdy Baker passes the ceremonial gavel over to the 2019-2020 president of the RLHS FFA chapter, Gracie Rodriguez.

Mrs. Hill announces the students' names during the middle school awards ceremony.

Amillion Melton receives her awards from Mr. Johanson.

Jason Allison receives his awards from Mr. Johanson.

Lisa Frias receives her folder of awards from Mr. Johanson while Mrs. Urive looks on.

Mr. Johanson addresses the audience during an awards ceremony.

Sydney Parcus receives her folder of awards from Mr. Johanson.

Charles Lewis receives his awards from Mr. Johanson while Mrs. Urive looks on.

CELEBRATING ACHIEVEMENTS

Journey Scott is being recognized for receiving the Outstanding 8th grade student in U.S. History at the awards ceremony by Mr. Johanson and Mrs. Sarah Michaels, a representative of Woodmen Life, an insurance and investment firm that concentrates on history and patriotism.

Kaitlan Broadus, Rakasia Buhl, Micaela Camero and Clara Coker wait in line for their name to be called.

Jeslyn Morales is surprised by an award she received during the awards ceremony.

Amarycuss Lockridge receives her awards from Mr. Johanson during the ceremony.

Rakasia Buhl receives her awards from Mr. Johanson.

Inductees listen to the program as they wait for their turn to participate.

Hannah Willberg passes the flame to Shade Steele during the induction program.

Sophie Easter hands out keys, the symbol of the honor societies.

Inductees take the oath for the National Junior Honor Society.

Tanner Martin participates in the induction program.

Inductees repeat the oath of the National Honor Society during the induction.

Adam Herwald lights a candle as part of the induction program.

Adam Herwald passes the light, as symbol of the honor societies, to Delaney Wilde during the induction program.

Emma Hering reads information to the inductees and parents during the induction program.

NHHS

NJHHS

Kaitlin Alonso gives Clara Coker a key as a symbol of the NHS.

Kaitlin Alonso leads the audience in the pledge during the induction ceremony for the National Honor Society.

Inductees sit on the stage, waiting for the beginning of the program.

Shade Steele lights a candle as part of the induction program.

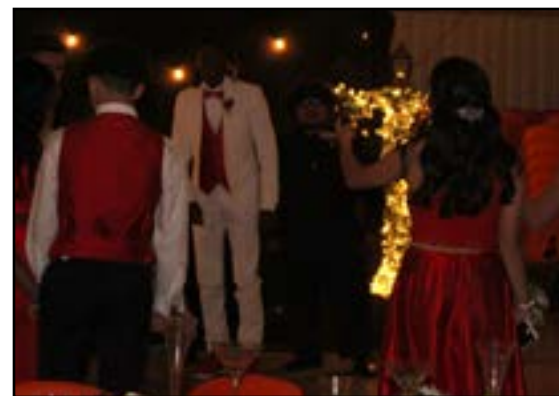

McKenzie McGinniss hands Alejandro Rodriguez a candle during the induction ceremony.

McKenzie McGinniss, Emma Hering, Breana Willis and Kasey Aleman dance during prom.

A group prepares for pictures against the many backdrops provided at prom.

Students enjoyed the freedom of standing around or sitting down to have conversations with one another during prom.

Dr. Brownlee, Mrs. Brownlee and Constable Loden enjoy a conversation before the students arrive.

An Evening Garden .... Prom 2019

Chandler Scott, Samuel Taggart and Saul Resendis perform air guitar solos for prom goers.

Kenneth Benson, Clara Coker, Christa Niemeyer, Ty Stock, Lily Dawson and her date dance during prom.

Logan Portillo, Cooper Voulgaris and Lesly Vargas wait for their photobooth pictures to be printed.

Prom King and Queen
Reese Sims and Isabella Mallory.

Emma Hering and Samuel Taggart vote for king and queen as they check in to prom.

Mrs. Adams serves Antonia Broadus and Charles Lewis some punch during prom.

Audrey Krieger and Alexandra Minor take a set to wait until time to line up for the ceremony.

Mrs. Mock leads the senior class out to the field to begin the ceremony.

Isidro Hernandez receives his diploma during the graduation ceremony

Students stand to wait their turn to receive their diploma.

Mr. Johanson welcomes the audience while Dr. Brownlee and Mrs. Urive look on.

One Last Time ... Graduation, Cougar Stadium May 24, 2019

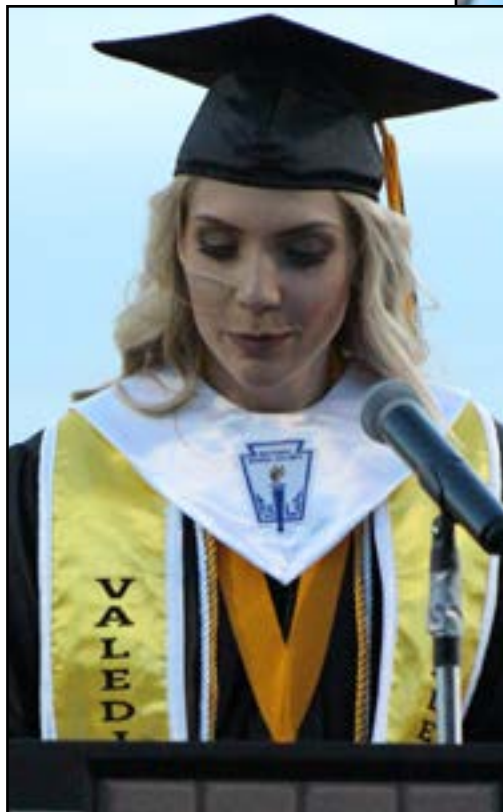

Whitney Aleman and Rowdy Baker listen intently to the Salutatorian speech during graduation.

Audrey Krieger gives her Salutatorian speech at graduation.

The senior class sings the alma mater one last time during graduation.

Alexandra Minor delivers her valedictorian speech at graduation.

The graduating class throws their caps into the air at the end of the graduation ceremony.